

CARDIFF, WALES - HANDS-ON ASEPTIC PROCESSING TRAINING PROGRAM - 2 ½ DAY PROGRAM

SESSION 1: 15-17 JANUARY 2013

REGISTRATION FEE:

€ 2500 OR £2000

PROGRAM DETAILS:

In conjunction with the Cardiff University School of Pharmacy in Cardiff, Wales, the Aseptic Training Institute is offering a two and a half day hands-on aseptic processing training program in the new, state-of-the-science cleanroom facility at the pharmacy school. Led by internationally recognized faculty from both Europe and the United States, this program will provide the What, Why and How of aseptic processing. The course work, focused on isolator technology, will include, but not limited to, basic aseptic techniques based on airflow studies in isolators, biosafety cabinets and contained laminar airflow devices; comparisons of regulations, guidelines and regulatory expectations between MHRA, EMA and FDA; basic microbiology and environmental monitoring; personnel qualification, including gowning techniques and certification; cleaning and sanitization requirements and techniques; facility and equipment design; and technique challenge studies and review of case studies.
